

A healthy church is marked by a continual devotion to the Lord, to God's people, and to God's work.

Devoted to Fellowship

Acts 2:42

Our church should be conspicuous for its continual devotion to the Lord's people—to fellowship with one another.

1. To have fellowship, we must be together.
2. To have fellowship, we must share together in the things of God.