

The background of the image is a deep blue night sky filled with numerous small, white stars. In the upper left corner, a single, exceptionally bright star radiates long, thin lines of light across the sky. In the lower right corner, the silhouettes of three figures riding camels are visible against the starry background. The figures are positioned as if they are traveling across a dark, hilly landscape. The overall scene evokes the biblical story of the Three Kings following the Star of Bethlehem.

Proclaiming the Birth of Our Savior

Luke 2:8-20

The background of the slide is a dark blue night sky filled with numerous small white stars. On the left side, a very bright star with a prominent four-pointed diffraction pattern and a long vertical beam of light shining downwards is visible. In the bottom right corner, there are black silhouettes of three figures riding camels, representing the Three Kings, moving towards the left. The background also features dark, layered silhouettes of mountains and a city skyline on the far left.

1. Angels announce the birth of a Savior.

A. Good News

B. Great Joy

C. For All People

John 3:17

“For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.”

Matthew 1:21

“And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.”

Hebrews 10:31

“It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.”

The background of the slide is a dark blue night sky filled with numerous small white stars. In the upper left corner, there is a large, bright star with a prominent four-pointed diffraction pattern. At the bottom of the slide, there are dark silhouettes of a desert landscape, including rolling hills and mountains. On the right side of the bottom, two camels are silhouetted against the sky, with riders on their backs. The overall scene evokes the biblical story of the Nativity.

2. Shepherds proclaim the good news of a Savior.

What God, through the angels,
made known to the shepherds,
they made known to many others.

3. People respond to the news of a Savior.

A. Wondering

B. Pondering

C. Praising

