

IF THE FOUNDATIONS BE DESTROYED

An aerial photograph of a city in ruins after a major earthquake. The ground is covered in a thick layer of rubble, including twisted metal, broken bricks, and debris from destroyed buildings. Several multi-story buildings remain standing but show significant structural damage, with some floors missing and windows shattered. A few people can be seen walking through the debris field, and some emergency responders in high-visibility vests are visible. The overall scene is one of devastation and the aftermath of a catastrophic event.

Psa. 11:3

“If the foundations be destroyed,
what can the righteous do?”

An aerial photograph of a city that has been almost completely destroyed by a disaster, likely an earthquake. The ground is covered in a vast expanse of rubble, including twisted metal, broken bricks, and debris from collapsed buildings. A few multi-story buildings remain standing, though they appear damaged. Numerous small figures of people are scattered throughout the scene, some standing in groups, others walking through the wreckage, which emphasizes the scale of the destruction. The overall tone is somber and desolate.
