

Deep Vein Thrombosis (DVT)

The Antidote for Comfortable, Complacent
Christianity

Matthew 16:24-25

A. Your hunger for screen time outstrips your hunger for God's Word.

B. Apart from times of personal crises, your prayer life is brief, dispassionate, and mechanical.

C. Holiness takes a back seat to fitting in with the world around you.

D. Your coworkers & neighbors have no idea that you love Jesus—because you never talk about Him.

- E. You allow attacks on God, God's Word, and God's people go unchallenged.
- F. You can hardly remember the last time you actually witnessed to someone.

G. You attend church regularly—as long as nothing more important comes up.

H. When it comes to your church and your church family, your spirit is more often critical & complaining rather than positive & supportive.

I. When the Spirit of God convicts you, whether through preaching, or reading the Scripture, or by pangs of conscience ... instead of repenting you ignore it, or excuse and rationalize it.

J. There is no clear indication of spiritual growth or advance in your life in recent years—if anything, ground has been lost.

- 1. Stop living for yourself.
- 2. Be willing to sacrifice and suffer for Jesus.
- 3. Fervently follow Him.

Hebrews 12:1

“Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,”

Hebrews 12:2

“Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.”

- 1. Stop living for yourself.
- 2. Be willing to sacrifice and suffer for Jesus.
- 3. Fervently follow Him.

