

The Father of Methuselah

Genesis 5:21-24

Genealogical format in Genesis 5 ...

- The father's name
- His age when he became a father
- The name of his firstborn
- How long he lived after becoming a father
- Statement about having more children
- The length of his life
- "... and he died."

1. Walking with God begins with faith.
2. Walking with God is helped, but not guaranteed, by a godly upbringing.
3. Walking with God is not a “normal” thing.

4. Walking with God isn't something "spectacular," either.
5. Walking with God means focusing on what's important to Him.
6. Walking with God pleases Him.

The Septuagint refers to an early translation of the Old Testament into Greek, accomplished by some 70 Jewish scholars around 200 BC.

It is sometimes abbreviated with the Roman number LXX (70).

1. Walking with God begins with faith.
2. Walking with God is helped by a godly upbringing.
3. Walking with God is not a “normal” thing.
4. Walking with God isn’t “spectacular,” either.
5. Walking with God means focusing on what’s important to Him.
6. Walking with God pleases God.