3. The Offer of a Sign

Isaiah 7:14

“Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.”

Matthew 1:23

“Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.”

The background of the image is a deep blue night sky filled with numerous small, bright white stars. In the upper left corner, a very bright star, representing the Star of Bethlehem, has a prominent four-pointed starburst and a long, vertical beam of light extending downwards towards the horizon. In the lower portion of the image, there are dark silhouettes of a landscape. On the left, a cluster of small, rectangular shapes suggests a town or village. In the center and right, rolling hills and mountains are visible. On the right side, three figures are silhouetted against the sky, riding camels and following the beam of light from the star.
